Abbey Janecek is an Associate Attorney at Goosmann Law Firm in Omaha. An Omaha native, Abbey helps business owners, developers, and families turn big ideas into reality through practical legal guidance. Her practice focuses on business law, zoning, land use, and real estate development, with additional experience in agricultural operations, family business succession, and generational transition planning. She partners with clients who are building something meaningful—whether launching a new venture, acquiring property, or preparing for the future of a family-owned business. Clients value Abbey's proactive mindset, steady presence, and ability to make legal complexities manageable so they can move forward with confidence.

Abbey's passion for the law reflects her belief in Audrey Hepburn's words: "As you grow older, you will discover that you have two hands—one for helping yourself, the other for helping others." She is committed to being the first call clients make when challenges or opportunities arise. Beyond her legal work, Abbey is deeply rooted in the Omaha community through her involvement with the Junior Council for Madonna Ability Alliance, Duchesne Academy Alumni Board, ACG Nebraska, and the American Agricultural Law Association.
