Omaha Partner Brad Marsicek comes from a distinguished diverse background of transactional and litigation legal experience that allows him to be one of the go-to Nebraska and Iowa divorce and litigation attorneys in reaching a fair outcome. Over the past 15 years Brad has helped business owners, professionals, and those seeking to preserve their parental rights or secure the best interests of their children. He understands that his clients have worked hard to earn their assets, income and retirement and he works diligently to support those seeking to achieve a fair and equitable outcome in their divorce.

Brad's mediation practice is primarily focused on using his experiences as a family law litigator and helping people navigate these troubling times to meet a mutually beneficial agreement outside of court. His services include parenting plans and financial mediations in divorces. He also provides collaborative divorce services by facilitating divorce agreements and drafting of necessary paperwork that reflects a jointly reached agreement.

Brad has an intricate understanding of the litigation process, knowledge of the local judges, and understanding of business and financial affairs of higher income clients. He has a diverse legal experience in divorce/custody litigation, general civil litigation, real estate, and insurance. Whether you are looking to have to an amicable resolution in a divorce mediation or seeking justice in your civil litigation matter, Brad Marsicek is ready to be the vigilant ally at your side.
