Of Counsel, Brian Bowman, is a seasoned banking, finance, and regulatory compliance attorney with extensive experience in both the public and private sectors. Over the course of his career, he has provided legal counsel, developed risk management strategies, and led compliance initiatives for major banks and financial institutions. Brian holds a Juris Doctor from Creighton University School of Law and a Bachelor of Arts in Political Science and French from St. John's University. Before joining Goosmann Law Firm, Brian served as Vice President and Compliance Officer at Republic Bank, where he managed compliance with federal and state regulations, conducted risk assessments, and worked closely with the Compliance Department to implement regulatory-driven updates. Brian's legal career also includes roles in litigation, fraud investigation, and legal oversight, representing clients in medical malpractice, workers' compensation, and contract disputes. In addition to his private sector work, Brian served for 23 years as a Judge Advocate in the U.S. Air Force and Iowa Air National Guard retiring at the rank of Colonel. During his military career Brian litigated over 40 trials and provided legal oversight on government contracting and cyber law. He led legal teams on significant projects, including military contracting efforts overseas. With a wealth of experience in compliance, risk management, and banking regulations, he is a go-to advisor for financial institutions and clients looking to confidently navigate the ever-evolving landscape of banking law and safeguard their business operations.
